

Graduate Opportunities, Trainee Managers, Monaghan Mushrooms

Recruiting, bright innovative thinkers... now.

Ours is an unconventional business, so if it's convention you're after, please do not apply.

We are looking for trainee managers to work at our facilities across the UK and Ireland.

We are one of the world's largest and most progressive fresh mushroom companies, with 21 sites throughout Ireland, UK, Europe and Canada. And we're growing!

We have recently opened the most advanced facility of its kind in Europe and are we are well on our way on bringing our other farms up to an equivalent standard

Interested in joining us?

You must have:

- Strong technical, analytical and decision-making skills;
- The ability to work productively in a team and independently;
- Strong communication skills, both written and verbal;
- Well developed interpersonal skills;
- A flexible approach to the working day, being pragmatic, adaptable and organised;
- An ability to work in an environment that is continually changing.

Essentials

- Driving licence and access to a vehicle
- Passport
- Willingness to travel and to work abroad for short periods, if required
- The ability to think 'outside of the box'
